PROVIDENCE, RI (August 20, 2014) – The Lovecraft Arts & Sciences Council is pleased to announce that the next NecronomiCon Providence will be held August 20 - 23, 2015 to coincide with the 125th anniversary of H.P. Lovecraft's birthday. The theme for NecronomiCon Providence 2015 will be "An International Homecoming," bringing together academics, authors, artists, Lovecraft devotees, and fans of weird fiction of all stripes from all over the world.

As with last year, we anticipate lots of eldritch events to be held all month leading up to the conference weekend, in partnership with our various local allies and friends. Expect another intensive immersion into the city that is central to Lovecraft's life and literature, filled with scholarly talks, panel discussions, author readings, art exhibits, film screenings, walking tours, gaming, music, parties, and myriad other stellar events that will draw attendees into the heart of Providence.

We are very happy to hear that so many of our previous special guests and attendees are already planning their return, including S.T. Joshi, Caitlin Kiernan, Bob Price, Sandy Petersen, and many others. We are also really proud to announce our 2015 Guests of Honor, thus far: Ramsey Campbell, Stephen Jones, Don Burlison, Leslie Klinger, and our Poet Laureate, Ann Schwader. Expect some more big names to come in future announcements.

ABOUT THE LOVECRAFT ARTS & SCIENCES COUNCIL

The Lovecraft Arts & Sciences Council is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization based in Providence, Rhode Island, that serves as a networking center for scholars, authors, and fans exploring the literary world of H.P. Lovecraft and associated authors. The organization seeks to examine the intersection of science and art that lies at the heart of H.P. Lovecraft's literary genre by working closely with experts and enthusiasts around the world to foster a critical review of related research, literature, art, and the cultural impact of Lovecraft's writings on the modern world.

The Lovecraft Arts & Sciences Council is actively looking for sponsors, grants, and charitable contributions to help implement this tribute to Providence's own H.P. Lovecraft. Interested parties should contact Niels Hobbs, Director of NecronomiCon Providence, at 401.743.3250 or email him at keeper@necronomicon-providence.com
